Five Ottawa law firm bands to play benefit concert in support of The Ottawa Food Bank

OTTAWA – BlackBerrys and briefcases will be ditched for microphones and instruments, as over thirty lawyers from Ottawa's top law firms will join together for a musical extravaganza in support of The Ottawa Food Bank.

"After Christmas, the Food Bank needs extra support. The lawyer-musicians playing at Lawzfest, and the members of the legal community attending the event, are pleased to support such a worthy cause in such a fun way. This year we sold out almost instantly. We plan to raise more funds, in a bigger event, next year," said Steve Waller, partner at Nelligan O'Brien Payne.

This sold out event will take place on:

Thursday, February 28, 7:30 – 11 pm.

The Rainbow, 76 Murray Street

The following law firms will be performing: Nelligan O'Brien Payne (Soul Practitioners), Perley-Robertson, Hill & McDougall (The House of Lords), Heenan Blaikie (The Ben Duchesne Quartet), Gowling Lafleur Henderson (The Hung Jury), and various firms (The Verdict).

"This is an ideal opportunity for Ottawa lawyers to get together, have fun and do something useful for the community. We can't wait for Thursday night", said Andrew Lenz, partner at Perley-Robertson, Hill & McDougall.

Organizers of this event would like to thank The Rainbow for sponsoring the venue for this event. All funds raised will be donated to The Ottawa Food Bank.
