

ANNOUNCEMENT

Hebert Leal LLP Joins Real Estate and Development Group at Nelligan O'Brien Payne

We are delighted to announce that the lawyers and staff of Hebert Leal LLP are joining the Real Estate and Development Group at Nelligan O'Brien Payne effective March 31, 2010.

Hebert Leal's reputation and expertise in land acquisition and development, builder representation, commercial leasing, financial and corporate matters will strengthen and expand our traditional areas of condominium development, multi-unit shared property freehold development, commercial real estate and financing.

Brian Hebert brings many years of valued experience in land development and commercial real estate. James Leal's experience in commercial real estate and development supplements our existing practice areas, and adds significant depth in the area of commercial leasing. Alexis Hebert will round off our existing group of associates and will allow us to provide services to our real estate clients at a full range of hourly rates.

We look forward to joining forces with our new colleagues and we know that they will enhance our ability to provide the high level legal expertise and service that our real estate and development clients have come to expect.

Contact information for Hebert Leal will remain the same until March 31, 2010. For more information please contact Debbie Bellinger at debbie.bellinger@nelligan.ca or Brian Hebert at bhebert@hebertleal.com.

For more information on Nelligan O'Brien Payne's Real Estate and Development group link to http://www.nelligan.ca/e/sv_pared.cfm