Nelligan O'Brien Payne to request representation orders for two Nortel employee groups

OTTAWA, March 10, 2009 - Nelligan O'Brien Payne will attend before the Commercial Court in Toronto to request representation orders for the two Nortel employee groups that the law firm is representing. The dates granted are April 20 and 21, 2009.

The two Nortel groups are:

RSCNE (Recently Severed Canadian Nortel Employees) those employees who received layoff notices BEFORE January 14, 2009

NCCE (Nortel Canadian Continuing Employees) those employees who were still employed on January 14, 2009, when Nortel sought protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act ("CCAA"), some of whom have since been terminated.

Additional information about these two groups can be obtained from www.nelligan.ca

INFORMATION SESSION FOR NORTEL EMPLOYEES

Given the recent layoffs at Nortel, Nelligan O'Brien Payne is providing another free information session for those employees who received a layoff notice AFTER January 14, 2009. Also welcome are current employees who may want to understand their rights if they are laid off while Nortel is under CCAA protection. This session will be held on:

Wednesday, March 11, 5 p.m.
Travelodge Hotel & Conference Centre
1376 Carling Avenue
